Thanksgiving—Then and Now

By W. W. MILLS

They were so grateful for the little
That first Thanksgiving day.
With contented hearts the season's labors done—
They bowed in solemn reverence to pray.
To him who sends us blessings
unfading.
To him who sends us blessings
unfading.

Shall we, who dwell in such a golden age,
No pilgrims with gifts to many men,
Forget the lesson of historic page,
When comes Thanksgiving day again?

Dr. and Mrs. Gregory A. Wall brought a congenial group of friends together on Friday evening at dinner in the Country club, honoring Mrs. J. Shepherd Epstein of New York City, the guest of her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Epstein. The table presented a handsome appearance with chrysanthemums in yellow which stood in a large basket. Tall yellow candles were used and unique favors were including girls, Picnics and other figures in gay coloring and done in wool. These held the place cards also. Enjoying this very attractive evening event were, besides hosts and hostess, Mesdames and Messrs. James M. Epstein, John H. Mauna, W. A. Moore, Charles W. Titus, D. B. Mason, William L. Kistler, A. T. Allen, William E. Hill and Miss Willene Finney.

Mrs. C. A. Cloud was hostess to members of her bridge club on Tuesday afternoon at a Halloween party. Beautiful chrysanthemums and roses were floral enhancement for the room. In the game, Mrs. H. C. Childs and Mrs. Leon Mead won honors.

Miss Gertrude's informal luncheon on Monday in the Country club was a very lovely courtesy to Mrs. M. Parrill, the guest of Mrs. M. J. Bohrer. Twelve were seated about a table handsomely decorated with yellow chrysanthemums. On the afternoon of Tuesday, Mrs. Parrill was honor guest at a small bridge party given by Mrs. M. J. Heald in her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Channing W. Benedict were surprised by a number of their friends Monday evening, the inspiration being to honor the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Benedict. Cards and dancing were enjoyed and present were: Mesdames Howard N. Cole, Fred Myers, William K. Holmes, Wheeler Hall, Clarence R. Gump, Gerald F. Benedict, Alf G. Heggem, George F. Hoagland, Mrs. Bishop and Dr. and Mrs. Ira T. Allison.

Mrs. S. M. Briscoe and Mrs. F. E. Pysatt won honors at the small but very attractive bridge party given by Mrs. C. J. Spaulding one afternoon during the week. Halloween was suggested in the decorations, combined with yellow chrysanthemums.

Friendship lodge at Parthenia park was the setting of a lovely evening planned by Chapter AB of the P. E. O. sisterhood of Tulsa for Chapter AK on Thursday evening of this week. Decorations in the colors of yellow and white were very effectively placed about the living room and in the decorations of the small tables where dinner was served. After dinner the evening was spent in much merry making in the election of Andrew Gump for congress. The many clever stunts hood and their husbands were brought together for dinner and an evening of merry making on Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Morrison. The colors of Halloween were evident everywhere in the festive decoration of the home and dinner table. The party also observed the birthday of the host who was presented with a diamond lapel pin the emblem of a fraternal order.

Mrs. Mollie E. Lawe's home in Crookville heights, was the setting for a gay party Tuesday evening given by her daughter Miss Kathlyn Filize. The evening was spent in dancing after which dainty refreshments were served to guests who were: Misses Coelia Lowe, Grace Rankin, Dorothy Hale, Mary Miller, Jean Rankin, Francis Kesteler, Hazel Wood, Alleene Hale, Mabel Strawn and Gladys Sanford, Messrs. D. Elliott, J. Van Hook, B. Fredrick, G. Helmer, A. Rubeck, D. Spaulding, R. Givens, G. Bradley, B. Collins, H. Miller and Billie Houston.

One of the entertainments of the past week, was the Halloween dance given by the juniors of the Holy Family high school, honoring the seniors. The festivities were held at the Knights of Columbus hall, 604 South Prince, on Monday evening, October 30. The Halloween spirit was carried out in the decorations. Punch was served throughout the evening and the refreshments carried out the nature of Halloween. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. P. J. O'Brien and McAnallen.

Mrs. Joseph Grant Clark was hostess at a post-nuptial party on the afternoon of Tuesday in honor of Mrs. Albert T. Twist formerly Miss Dana Martin, an October bride. Mrs. Clark entertained at her home, 311 E. Thirtieth street with a bridge luncheon. Yellow and white were expressed in flowers and in the game, Mrs. Harley Price and Mrs. Louis W. Grant won honors. Tea

Mrs. Robert G. Berry entertained with a small tea in her home on Friday afternoon, complimentary to members of the Conway-Brown school faculty, these being, Mesdames E. J. Tuttle, W. A. Cripes, A. J. Couch, A. S. Welch, Fred A. Fulghum, Misses Anna E. Gant, W. T. Moore, Marjorie Cornelius, Janie Mathews, Rebecca Payne, Marie Lanier, Frances Ordway, Anna Mae Evans, Leona Brittain and Mary Adelaide Sharpe. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. J. M. Berry, Misses Margaret Hagler, Jean Hagler, Kathryn Fulghum and Mary Clay Williams. About thirty guests enjoyed the occasion and hospitality extended.

The Y. W. C. A. membership tea given Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. B. McAnally with Mrs. P. A. Broach assisting the hostess, marked the first of monthly affairs of the kind that will feature the winter season. Quite an amount of good was accomplished for the cause and Mrs. H. S. Hannie and Mrs. John Pickens will be the next hostesses.

Receptions

The federated clubs of Tulsa were hosts at a beautiful reception in the parlors of the First Christian church on Friday afternoon, following the brilliant address of Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, honoring the distinguished woman who stands at the head of the federated clubs of the United States. The long length of the room presented an autumnal picture of much beauty with artistic placing of autumn leaves with their rich coloring which formed a background for the many wicker floor vases which held bronze, white and pink chrysanthemums. An orchestra was placed at one end of the room and discoursed beautiful music. Mrs. John J. Shea, member of the reception committee, Mrs. William N. Hill, representing the federated clubs of Tulsa, and Mrs. Fred S. Clinton, oldest federated club president, point of service in the city, received and introduced the visitors to Mrs. Winter, state president; Mrs. Eugene R. Lawson, past state president; Mrs. H. H. McClintock, president Oklahoma Daughters of the American Revolution, Mrs. John Q. Adams, president of the first district federation, Mrs. D. A. McDougal of Sapulpa, past state president. Fully three hundred women remained for the reception.

CORRECT DRESS FOR WOMEN

Each day your skin is changing

PERHAPS you have always felt that your skin was something you could not change.

You are mistaken; your skin is what you make it.

Every day it is changing in spite of you. Old skin continually dies, and new takes its place. By the right care you can make this new skin what you will.

FIND the right treatment for your special type of skin in the famous booklet "A Skin You Love to Touch" which is wrapped around every cake of Woodbury's Facial Soap.

Begin using this treatment tonight.

Within a week or ten days you can bring about a marked improvement in the clearness, smoothness, softness of your complexion.

USE Woodbury's regularly in your daily toilet to keep your skin in good condition. If used persistently, Woodbury's stimulates the pores and blood-vessels and gives the skin tissues firmness and tone.

A 25-cent cake of Woodbury's Facial Soap lasts a month or six weeks.
